

Monday, Aug. 2, 2004
Hall B

09:00-17:30

5th Symposium on Sustainable Development: Theories, Strategies and Global Governance Systems

Chair: Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, Tokyo International University, Japan

Wheels for Sustainable Development

by Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, Tokyo International University, Kawagoe, Saitama, Japan

Architecture as Manifestation of Energy

by Prof. Greg Andonian, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada

‘Enlightment’ – A New Way for the World

by Dr. Robert John, International Council for Human Ecology and Ethnology - ICHEE. ORG New York, USA

From Local Identity to Global Integrity

by Prof. Junie Tong, Jilin University & Dalian University of Technology, China

Reflection on Culture

by Prof. John Hiller, University of Sydney, Australia

LUNCH BREAK 12:00-14:00

Implementation of Long-Term Societal Development

by Dr. Torben Larsen, CAST, Southern Danish University, Denmark

Contemporary Thai Art and Globalization: Materialism versus Spiritualism

by Prof. Thepsakdi Thongnopkoon and Dr. Lertsiri Bovornkitti, Burapha University, Chonburi, Thailand

Possibilities of the Realization of Sustainable Development on the Global Scale

by Prof. Wiktor Adamkiewicz, IIAS; Gdansk University of Technology, Poland

Sustainable Community Economic Development & the Comprehensive Asset Building Model in the Texas-Mexico Frontera

by Ms. Zoraima Diaz, Graduate Student, The University of Texas at Austin, USA

Space, Time, Culture, Sustainability: Gazing at the Globe via Different Lenses

by Prof. Brian R. Sinclair, University of Calgary, Canada

The Requisite Holism of Interest-based Understanding of Sustainable Development

by Prof. Vojko Potocan and Prof. Matjaz Mulej, University of Maribor, Slovenia

Promoting Environmental Literacy in Low or Non-Literate Communities Through Channels of Indigenous Knowledge and Culture-Oriented Experiences: A Systems Thinking Approach

by Prof. Sabiha S. Daudi, Northern Illinois University, USA