

Tuesday, August 3, 2004

09:00-12:00

The Aula

3rd ORWELLIAN SYMPOSIUM - Part I.
The Impact of Current Socio-Political Developments on Freedom and on the Future Development of our Society

Chair: Prof. George E. Lasker, IIAS, University of Windsor, Ontario, Canada, and Prof. William Graham, IIAS, University of Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Introduction to the 3rd Orwellian Symposium

by Prof. George E. Lasker, IIAS, University of Windsor, Ontario, Canada

Down the Slippery Slope to Global Dictatorship:

Current Socio-Political Developments, Big Lies and Emergence of the Orwellian Society

by Prof. George E. Lasker, IIAS, University of Windsor, Ontario, Canada

Big Brother is Here: High Tech Surveillance of Terrorists and Innocent Travelers Alike; Is Democracy and Freedom Expiring?

by Prof. Winfried K. Rudloff, Governors State University, USA

The Networked Society: Will We Live Happily Ever After?

by Prof. William Graham, IIAS, University of Toronto, Ontario, Canada

DISCUSSION

Wednesday, August 4, 2004

09:00 – 12:00

The Aula

3rd ORWELLIAN SYMPOSIUM - Part II.

Chair: Prof. William Graham, IIAS, University of Toronto, Ontario, Canada
Prof. George E. Lasker, IIAS, University of Windsor, Ontario, Canada,

Latent Solutions Hiding Within the Crisis of Perception?

by Prof. Ayten Aydin¹, Prof. William Graham², Prof. Harry Schwarzlander³,

¹IIAS, Rome, Italy; ²IIAS & Univ. of Toronto, Canada; ³Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY, USA

Architecture of Inhumanity: An Orwellian Perspective

by Prof. Greg Andonian, Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada

Listening to Bin Laden and the Council of George Washington

by Dr. Robert John, Intl. Council for Human Ecology and Ethnology, New York, USA

Big Brother and Big Market – How Can We Escape the Dilemma?

by Prof. Kensei Hiwaki, Tokyo International University, Kawagoe, Saitama, Japan

DISCUSSION