

Tuesday, August 3, 2004

14:00-18:00

The Aula

Plenary Session

Cybernetics & Contemporary Life - Keynote Addresses

Chair: Prof. Akira Ishikawa, Dean, Aoyama Gakuin University, Tokyo, Japan
Prof. Brian R. Sinclair, Dean, University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Interdisciplinarity, Systems and the Pursuit of Solutions Incomprehensible by Prof. Brian R. Sinclair, Dean, University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta, Canada

What Biologists Should Know, But Don't by Dr. C. A. Hilgartner, Hilgartner & Associates, Kirksville, Missouri, USA, and Prof. Martha A. Bartter, Truman State University, Kirksville, Missouri, USA

A Systematic, Time-Tested Method for Throwing People Away
by Prof. Martha Bartter, Truman State University, Kirksville, Missouri, USA

Strategies for Development of Indigenous People by Dr. Stephanie Wiesbauer-Hohenwart, President, The Intl. Commission on Anthropological Research, and Department of Ethnomedicine, Medical University, Vienna, Austria

COFFEE BREAK 16:00-16:15

Top Global Companies in Japan – Identification of Six Strategic Patterns of Top Global Companies by Prof. Akira Ishikawa, Dean, Aoyama Gakuin University, Tokyo, Japan, and Prof. Tai Nejo, Nihon University, Japan

Economic and Political Changes in Hungary: The Turmoil and Changes Since 1989 by Dr. Laszlo Mukarozsy, Dean, University of Debrecen, Debrecen, Hungary, Dr. John Rogers, Dean, Mesa State, Grand Junction, Colorado, USA, and
Dr. Alfred Hagan, Pepperdine University, Los Angeles, California, USA

Private Universities in Poland After 1989
by Prof. Marcin Geryk, The Chancellor, Gdansk Management College, Poland

Artificial Intelligence Subjects in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Studies by Prof. Oto Tezak¹, Karl O. Jones², Antonio Gonzales³, Rajko Svečko¹, Drago Dolinar¹, ¹University of Maribor, Slovenia; ²Liverpool John Moores University, United Kingdom; ³University of Granada, Spain