Plenary Session on Systems Management and Risk Analysis

Chair: Prof. Sophia Langley, IIAS and CARMA Ltd., U.K. and Canada.
   Prof. Peter Jarrat, University of Birmingham, Edgbaston, U.K.

A Workflow Model for Distributed Management of Risk: Collaborative Management Of Uncertainty in Large Organizations by Prof. Sophia Langley, IIAS and CARMA Ltd., U.K. and Canada

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and the Lessons of ENRON
by Dr. Ed Mckibbon, Andrews, Hooper & Pavlik, Rochester Hills, Michigan, USA

Wealth Management Technologies
by Carol Moros, Retirement Funding, Bingham Farms, MI, USA.

Funding Not-for-Profit Institutions in the New Economics: The Czech Republic as a Case Study by Prof. Marc S. Ellenbogen and Marcus P.G. Dill, Global Panel Foundation, Prague, Czech Republic

Management Style Evolution: A Longitudinal Study of Differences in Management Style Between MBA Candidates in the Same Cultural Environment
by Prof. Alfred J. Hagan, Prof. John C. Rogers and Dr. Monica J. Hagan

Controlability and Multi-Objective Optimization of Enterprise Managing System by Prof. Petr Lebeda, University of West Bohemia, Cheb, Czech Republic and Prof. Ladislav Lukaš, University of West Bohemia, Pilsen, Czech Republic

LUNCH BREAK 12:00 – 14:00

System Approach to Modelling of Complex Systems With Special Regard to Interorganizational Systems by Prof. Miroljub Kljajić, University of Maribor, Slovenia

by Prof. Stephen Todd, University of Salford, U.K.

Deregulation and Its Impact on the Cost of Electricity by Profs. D. O. Koval, L. Hiemer, T. Bor, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada

Strategic Choice and the Strength of Moral Argument In the Enterprises in Transition Countries
by Prof. Jozica Knez-Riedl, University of Maribor, Slovenia

Culture of Peace and Globalization – A Set of Main Decisions Influencing Globalization by Prof. Wiktor Adamkiewicz, Technical University of Gdansk and Gdynia Maritime Academy, Gdansk, Poland